Feb 1968

New Action on Sanders Expected

President Johnson is expected to resubmit the name of Harold Barefoot Sanders Jr. to Congress in January to fill a vacant seat on the District Court of Appeals. Sanders' appointment last fall was caught up in the infighting over the Fortas nomination for Supreme Court Chief Justice. At present, the White House chief legislative lobbyist, Sanders is thought to have enough friends on Capitol Hill to get approval before—or after—the inauguration of the Nixon Administration.